PUB HISTORY

This was where the initial light bulb switched on in 1983: Mike & Brian McMenamin's first pub. The magic combination proved to be good food, many great beers on tap, original artwork and people to laugh with, as well as an old kitty litter mill used by Oregon's first microbrewery to grind barley. The building itself is a landmark of Hawthorne Boulevard, having drawn folks for generations, first as the rough & tumble Scuttlebutt tavern, then the red hot, but short-lived Fat Little Rooster, featuring live music by the likes of a young Robert Cray. Come back for the Barley Mill Pub's festive summertime anniversary and celebrate all the history, personalities and a very special all-McMenamins brew!
