PUB HISTORY

This great, old place was established as a general store & State Treasury in 1860, just one year shy of Oregon herself. If these walls could talk, they would tell the tales of future U. S. President Herbert Hoover getting stuck on the roof, jazz legend Earl "Fatha" Hines wailing on the keys, and iconic actor Jack Nicholson over-imbibing during the shooting of One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. McMenamins acquired this fabulous, historic spot in 1998.
