OUR HISTORY

Who's the wild-haired gent piloting a billiards-table-airplane in the Broadway Pub logo? That's William Gladstone, UK prime minister in the late 1800s. But why him? Back in 1990, when we opened the place, McMenamins artist Lyle Hehn was asked to create the pub's logo. "For about ten years I produced a growing stack of attempted logos, but nothing seemed to stick." Sometime around 2000, Mike McMenamin and Lyle met at Broadway to discuss company graphics projects. Lyle spotted the portrait of Gladstone on the wall and inspiration struck. "The idea of Gladstone piloting some goofy Hammerhead plane popped into my head. I made a quick sketch." It featured a pool table like the one in the pub's Gladstone Room at the time. Mike loved it and it stuck.
