OUR HISTORY

This epic brick-and-columned lodging, dining and event property draws energy from a long and mystical past as the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. Having originally opened in 1922 as a rest home for members of the Masonic order and its auxiliaries, it provided its residents with excellent shelter and care prior to the establishment of the Welfare and Social Security systems. The smaller brick building on property was built in 1926 as an orphanage. It was quickly adapted for administrative offices when it was realized that operating a facility for the young and the elderly was a little too ambitious. Today, The Grand Lodge is alive with artwork, live music, special events, a day spa, soaking pool, a theater, and expansive grounds and beautiful gardens. And for more intimate confines, the cozy Yardhouse Pub is a popular alternative.
