OUR HISTORY

McMenamins Greenway Pub was a significant and early leader in the Pacific Northwest's “Good Beer” movement and brewpub revolution. When it opened in 1983, the pub gave beer lovers a haven on the west side of Portland, offering a staggering amount of beer choices and showcasing jars of hops and malts on the bar to touch, taste and smell. Today, it is still a neighborhood staple for beer lovers, where friends gather for a pint, a good meal and a game of shuffleboard, all under the watchful eyes of the exotic beauties that populate the pub’s impressive saltwater fish tanks.
