OUR HISTORY

McMenamins Kalama Harbor Lodge was built in 2018, along the banks of the Columbia River. The lodge is modeled after the 1905 Pioneer Inn at Lahaina, Maui and further infused with the life story of John Kalama, a Native Hawaiian and early immigrant to the Pacific Northwest. Artwork and photographs adorn the lodge throughout, illustrating the stories of the Native Chinook and Cowlitz tribes, the advent of the Northern Pacific Railroad, the busy Port of Kalama, the burgeoning fishing and logging industries, and the remarkable local people who continue to make this serene river community a must-see destination.
