PUB HISTORY

Congratulations – you've made it to the Oregon coast's very first brewpub! Opened in 1986, the Lighthouse was McMenamins' 15th location (today, there are nearly 60 across Oregon and Washington). Just a year earlier, in 1985, a small group of brewers helped push new legislation through the Oregon Legislature that allowed brewers to sell their beer onsite. Mike and Brian McMenamin, together with a group of Portland-area brewers including Dick and Nancy Ponzi of BridgePort Brewing; Art Larrance and Fred Bowman of Portland Brewing; Kurt and Rob Widmer of Widmer Brothers Brewing, sponsored a bill that would change the law in Oregon. After months and months of boots-on-the-ground, grassroots efforts, their work paid off. The law was finally passed, and thus the iconic Oregon brewpub was born.
