PUB HISTORY

Since its founding in 1851, Portland's downtown core has evolved through many changes; however, McMenamins Market Street Pub (opened in 1995) has long been a foundation of the city's modern history. It's a welcoming spot for PSU students, late-night theatergoers, shoppers and, our favorite regular back in the day, former mayor Vera Katz, who lived in the apartment complex above. Just a year after opening, even Vice President Al Gore stopped by and then later declared to a packed campaign audience that Market Street was the place in town to go for a beer. Cheers from all of us here at the pub.
