OUR HISTORY

This welcoming old Episcopal parish hall, built in 1930, was renovated and reopened as a McMenamins in 1995, instantly becoming a favorite hangout of courthouse staff from next door – although on one unfortunate day the pub’s unofficial motto became: “Everything’s great ‘til you tow a judge’s car.” Be sure to head out to the deck to take note of the lovely black locust trees. In 2019, a regular let us know that as a teenager, he and a buddy took then-Governor Tom McCall up on his call to Oregonians to aid the environment. The kids spent two summers buying and planting 10,000 starter trees! The black locusts that surround the deck were among their efforts; we are pleased to keep them thriving as testament to those kids’ (now in their 70s) environmental action.
