PUB HISTORY

Bringing sunshine to this suburban office park since 1989, Sunnyside Pub is a longtime favorite of desk jockeys, hospital staff and I-205 travelers alike. As the 14th location opened by brothers Mike and Brian McMenamain, this has for decades been a great spot to enjoy a sunlight-colored IPA or a black-as-night Terminator Stout, brewed at our Monroe brewery in Corvallis. A few years after we opened, the Clackamas Town Center mall was constructed a stone's throw across the freeway, bringing a new clientele of weary shoppers to unwind in the pub with a good beer and a burger. The Town Center mall originally included a skating rink called "the Ice Chalet" on which infamous Olympic skater Tonya Harding would often practice during the mid-1990s.
