OUR HISTORY

Since its 1909 opening, Tavern & Pool has been a Slabtown neighborhood favorite. For much of that time, the place was owned and frequented by Slabtown's Croatian population, whose lives revolved around family, the nearby St. Patrick's Church, and Portland Beavers baseball park, that stood around the corner until the 1950s. McMenamins took over stewardship here in 1984, as our 4th location. Among those who gather at T&P now, the old-timers tend to reminisce about Johnny Pesky and other baseball greats who came out of Slabtown. Meanwhile younger folks chalk up sticks for a round of pool and Hammerheads and talk about the celebrities who have stopped by the T&P, including actors River Phoenix, Keanu Reeves and Matt Dillion and musicians Flea and Bruce Springsteen.
