PUB HISTORY

Hard to believe this little pub has been around for 29 years (and counting!), having opened in 1992. It contains McMenamins' first "small house" brewery with a glycol system, allowing brewers to thoroughly regulate temperatures and control fermentation. Another must-see while you're here? – have a look at former McMenamins artist Scott Young's incredible 40-foot wall-and-ceiling mural, inspired by Michael Murphy's mystical-trippy novel Golf in the Kingdom (1971), a book that has influenced many McMenamins' properties. Can you find the skull in the clouds? And a final fact about this sweet little spot – it's the birthplace of Sunflower IPA, an original recipe developed by then-brewer Rob Vallance in the mid-1990s; today, Sunflower is one of McMenamins' flagship beers.
