INTRODUCTION & HISTORY

Welcome to McMenamins Kalama Harbor Lodge – a tropical-inspired oasis along the Columbia River – nestled between the city’s landmark totem poles and the marina at the Port of Kalama. We’re a 40-minute drive from Portland and about 2 hours from Seattle. Inspired by the Native American Chinook and Cowlitz people of the region, as well as by the Hawaiian heritage of John Kalama, the property is reminiscent of the Pioneer Inn on Maui, while original art and historical photos pay tribute to Northwest heritage. You and your guests are sure to relax into an island vibe while taking in the beauty of the Pacific Northwest.

McMenamins celebrates the community and its magnificent Columbia River setting through artwork and visual surprises around every corner. Our event space is named Old 97 for the railroad switch engine that was used in the late 1800s to disassemble and reassemble train cars on the massive transfer ferry that crossed the Columbia at Kalama.

Beyond the event space, the island-inspired 40 guestrooms each have private bathrooms and individual lanais, most with a view of the river. Explore the Cloud Bar on the rooftop and enjoy a handcrafted beverage from the onsite brewery.

Dine for breakfast, lunch or dinner in the Pub or on the wraparound patio.

Let McMenamins Kalama Harbor Lodge be the place for your next meeting, event or celebration.

HARBOR LODGE ATTRACTIONS

PUB

We invite you in daily for breakfast, lunch or dinner. The Pub allows for expansive fair-weather dining with a wrap-around outdoor patio. You can also choose to sit indoors alongside the many windows or settle into a cozy booth. The menus include specialties with a Hawaiian twist, as well as McMenamins favorites, such as pizza, burgers and salads.

HARBOR LOUNGE

Relax and have a McMenamins handcrafted ale, cider, wine, spirit or coffee. If it's a Wednesday or Thursday night, we'll have free live music for your entertainment.

CLOUD BAR

Come for the bird's-eye view of the Columbia River and stay for the signature tropical drinks: the Three Rocks Rum Daiquiri and the Mai Tai – or a fresh ale from the onsite brewery. Watch the boats come and go, handcrafted refresher in hand.

AHLES POINT CABIN

Meander along the path that leads from the hotel past the totem poles and Louis Rasmussen Day Park to Ahles Point, where you'll find a small log-cabin built by Kalama's Mountain Log Homes. The Cabin has fireplaces inside and out, with a patio and views of the Columbia River.

BREWERY

Peek through the windows in the lobby to discover the brewery, or follow the aroma of freshly spent grain. The brewery houses a new 7-barrel brew system with modern conical fermenters in stainless steel with copper accents. This brew house is equipped with two brite tanks that will assist in the maturation and clarifying process, a welcome addition in the modern production of craft beer. A particularly pleasing aesthetic in the brewery is our onion-domed, copper-covered brew kettle, manufactured by Pioneer Tank & Vessel out of Portland – this component is a first for McMenamins and as far as we know, a first in the Pacific Northwest.

You may catch a glimpse of our Kalama brewer. Stop in to say hello and try a Kalama specialty brew before you go.

HARBOR LODGE MARKET

Across from the Brewery, stop in the market. Get a pint while you shop or a growler fill to go; our taps include McMenamins cider, seasonal beer, standard beer and nitro coffee. Our staff will custom-make a drink at the espresso bar, where there are also fresh pastries made daily.

Take home an old favorite or discover something new from the multiple coolers filled with McMenamins' beer and guest cider and beer to go.

Gear up with McMenamins T-shirts, hoodies, bar accessories, drinkware and gifts. Headed to the park and port? We've got swimsuits, kites, Frisbees and snacks to go.

CATERING SUGGESTIONS

We use fresh, local ingredients and offer housemade desserts – not to mention McMenamins handcrafted ales, wines, cider and spirits, as well as our house-roasted coffee.

Browse our banquet offerings to get a sense of the island-inspired feeling of Kalama Harbor Lodge. You could pick the North Shore Buffet with Island Slaw, Three Rocks Jerk Chicken, Coconut Shrimp and Banana Bread Pudding. And add the Tiki Pupu Party menu with Year of the Dragon Pork Sliders and Egg rolls as a pre or post event snack. These are just a few of our unique menu items, with so many more from which to choose.

It's best to order enough of each item so everyone can sample. For stand-up receptions, we recommend foods that can be eaten without a knife and fork. For events, we recommend:

Light hors d'oeuvres, prior to dinner: 3-5 items per person

Afternoon reception (3 p.m. 'til 5 p.m.): 7-10 items per person

Evening reception (5 p.m. 'til 8 p.m.): 12-14 items per person

For party planning items, popular selections include Crab Cakes, Hazelnut-Crusted Brie and Spicy Tuna Tartare.

Not sure what to choose? We've got you covered with five Reception Packages. These packages will keep food fresh and available for up to two hours.

For your main meals, explore our Buffet Enhancements section and put your touch on an already exciting offering.
