ANDERSON SCHOOL ART

In 1947, Carroll "Si" Siverson was hired to teach and coach at Bothell High School, becoming vice principal in 1957. He opened Inglemoor High School in 1964 and was the principal until retiring in 1977. Respected by students and staff alike, he attended all school activities, greeted attendees each fall at the Spaghetti Bowl and then served dinner and cleaned. His advocacy for a performing arts theater at Inglemoor High School later led to its renaming as Siverson Theatre. He was a lifetime Kiwanis Club member with 36 years of perfect attendance. He voluntarily drove the Northshore Senior Center van, set up a college scholarship fund, worked for his church and attended Inglemoor High School reunions until his death at 93 in 2012.
