BACK STAGE POOL ★ SPIRITS

OUR HISTORY

This soaring, seven-story-tall space, where since 1927 sets, curtains, lights, props, stagehands and actors once awaited their cues, was transformed into an incredible new gathering place and game room. Six artists created the gigantic mural depicting highlights of the Bagdad's past hangs on one wall, while one of the original theater curtains graces most of another wall. Don't miss the great relic of a backbar that migrated down from the Oly Club café, and the twinkling "stars" way up in the ceiling. The Jockey neon came from a great old North Portland tavern.
