OUR HISTORY

Opened just days before the Crystal Ballroom, its upstairs neighbor, Ringlers is a whole 'nother trip. Housed in an old automotive service garage, its tall, wooden-beamed ceiling and massive, tile-drenched bar--dubbed The Ark--strike a cavernous pose. The Crystal's life force, generated by the continuum of the ballroom's dancers and musicians, flows down through the brewery and onto the pub's canopy, flooding the Ark. The pub's name commemorates the Crystal's originator, jazz aficionado, and entrepreneur, Montrose Ringler.
