OUR HISTORY

Welcome to McMenamins’ northernmost location – Mill Creek! In the early 1900s, logging mills in the area gave way to the small farming community that became Mill Creek. After the completion of the Bothell Everett Highway in 1913, stores and gas stations quickly sprang up along the route for travelers and trucks. Fast forward to the introduction of Interstate 5 in 1969, and new traffic patterns required an entirely new concept for city planning. Farmland was bought by real estate developers and transformed into a suburban community centered around the Mill Creek Country Club and golf course. The town was incorporated in 1983, the same year that Mike and Brian McMenamin opened their first pub – Barely Mill Pub in Portland. As the humble community of Mill Creek grew from a town of 3,000 into a city of over 20,000 people, McMenamins, too, was entering an era of rapid expansion. Mill Creek Pub opened in 1995 – now, one of nearly 60 locations in Oregon and Washington.
