

WELCOME TO THE BROOM CLOSET

You made it!

Broom Closet: FAQs and History

- If there is no seating available, you are welcome to order and take your drink with you around property!
- We do not serve food, but all our other pubs and movie theater serve a full menu.
- Minors are welcome to briefly look inside, but unfortunately, they cannot stay for an extended period of time.
- The Broom Closet was opened in 2016, so it was not a part of the original school. The space was originally going to be a King suite, but founder Mike McMenammin thought it would be better suited for a bar!
- In the little nook directly on your right when you enter the bar, the ceiling is composed of wooden dowels. It's intended to look as if you were very tiny and were looking up at the bristles of a broom!
- You may also notice that within the little nook, customers have stuffed notes in the dowels for you to find! Keep in mind, that whatever they say does NOT represent McMenammins. :)
- The brooms hanging in the hallway before you enter the bar were made by the same artists who designed the brooms for the Harry Potter movies!
- Looking around, you may notice a lot of band posters and art, all of which are important to the McMenammin's family. Many of the bands have played concerts at Edgefield, Crystal Ballroom, Grand Lodge, and more.
