HISTORY

McMenamins' first foray east of the Cascade Range is this 1936 Catholic School, which itself was a pioneer: the original parochial school in Central Oregon. The old school house with its additions, gym and four bungalows are beaming anew following a creative renovation. The soul of the place percolates with a remarkable array of characters, images and stories: Father Luke Sheehan, the Irish Capuchin priest who founded the parish and school; Luke's nephew, Father Dominic O'Connor, the Irish National hero, who served in Bend in the '20s and scared the KKK; All the Sisters who taught with a warm heart, firm hand and perhaps a ruler nearby; the trusty 1968 Rambler wagon, the first car that the nuns could call their own; and Hugh O'Kane, the larger-than-life globe trotter and raconteur. And if their tales don't move you, then the St. Francis Turkish-style bath with its glorious tile work will for sure!
